

Webpage Acceleration

Introduction

The webpage acceleration service is a web access acceleration services provided by ChinaCache CDN network. Built upon ChinaCache’s advanced technical network architecture to distribute page content such as text, pictures and other content to edge nodes, the service ensures customers get access to content as quickly as possible.

Product Features

Basic Features

Origin monitoring, global intelligence load balancing, content purge, content pre-load, user access log, HTTPS acceleration.

Value-Added Features

HTTP 2.0 protocol acceleration, image watermark, bandwidth usage alert, hotlink prevention, DDoS attack prevention, web application firewall, token authentication, customized geographic redirect.

Application Scenarios

Accelerated content: images, texts, audios, Flash files

Industries: media outlets, company websites, games, e-commerce

Product Architecture

